These kinda things sorta bug me a bit
 But I've got big ideas,--And I won't quit
 Even if it's not stacked up right
 I'll still sleep really well tonight

I may be just a bit short of the mark
 But I still find my way in the dark
 My dog sorta likes me, and the cat don't bite
 And maybe these lyrics just need a rewrite

I know I will slowly pull it all together
 Find my niche, my birds of a feather
 And everything I touch will be good and golden
 Including this uke which I be holdin'

Well you be sayin' this song ain't serious
 It kinda makes you laugh, just a bit humorous
 Well, I ain't worried if it don't pass muster
 'Cuz I'm still standing, unlike George Custer...
