I've taken a couple of days to think about this song, --I've told myself that it really won't take too long
And I realize as I stare upon this page --That I've been writing this song since I was teen age

I've got a list of things that I need to get done --And I've enlisted the help of --you know--the One
It just occurred to me that I ought to get started --Before this life and me, are soon parted

Well, my beard is gray and my hair is thin, --Maybe right now is the time to begin
There ain't no time like the present --Just as soon as I watch this Oprah segment

I've got some time tomorrow, I'll schedule this in --As soon as I find a pencil or a pen
Once I wash the car, I'm sure I'll be ready --But after my nap, 'cuz I'm sure I'll be sweaty

My library's full, there's a lot to read --And my life will be great once I do the deed
I'm gonna make changes, you wait and see --When I finish reading, there'll be a brand new me
