You can't count me out 'cuz I'm still here!

It's been said it's hard to row a boat upstream
 But God showed me the way in a dream
 If I stick close to shore, the current flows no more
 Now I've got a helmsman on my team

I've been patient and I've learned to persevere
 Even though I was naive and full of fear
 If I keep my spirit strong, I will always get along
 And never be afraid to shed a tear
